

WORD

¹Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; ²but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night. ³He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. PSALM 1:1-3

We can know God more by meditating on and studying His Word. When we read our Bible, we seek communion or fellowship with God—He gives us His Word and we respond to it. This is why we need to pause and reflect on what the Holy Spirit wants us to understand, so we can respond appropriately. In this lesson, we will look at what we will be like, if we delight in and develop the discipline of daily reading and obeying God’s Word.

1 We will be well-nourished.

He is like a tree planted by streams of water . . . PSALM 1:3

A tree planted by streams of water is healthy. Its leaves don’t wither, and it doesn’t worry even in a year of drought (Jeremiah 17:8). When we keep God’s Word in our hearts, we will be like this healthy tree; the living waters of the Holy Spirit will work in our lives even during difficult times. What does it mean to be like a tree planted by streams of water?

2 We will be fruitful.

. . . that yields its fruit in its season . . . PSALM 1:3

A tree that is well-nourished will bear fruit in time. Fruitfulness is a result of applying God’s Word in our lives. Some signs of fruitfulness are exhibiting the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22) and leading others to Jesus Christ. How has the discipline of reading and obeying the Word resulted in fruitfulness in your life? Give an example.

3 We will prosper.

. . . In all that he does, he prospers. PSALM 1:3

As we obey and live out the truth in God’s Word, the Bible promises us prosperity and good success (Joshua 1:8). God’s promise of nourishment, fruitfulness, and prosperity comes as we delight in His Word and obey what it says. How have you learned to develop the habit of reading God’s Word daily, and what results have you seen in your life?
